

DIANA SWAN / FINE ARTIST

Room for Colour

COLOURFUL WORLDS. REAL EMOTIONS. ENDLESS STORIES.

ART THAT GIVES A ROOM
ITS OWN STORY.

HOMES / COLLECTED ROOMS / LOFTS / ESCAPES

A LITTLE COLOUR. A DIFFERENT FEELING.

Make room for a story

A painting can be the beginning of a room: a colour to repeat, a character to enjoy, a story to return to. Room for Colour explores how Diana Swan's paintings can live in spaces with very different personalities.

From quiet cream interiors to city lofts, collected salons, coastal homes and welcoming lounges, these pages offer different possibilities for each painting. A cushion, a ceramic bowl or a vase of flowers may be enough to make the connection.

THE LADIES

Les Bulbes

Hospitality with character

Conversation, colour and a little mischief. Turquoise ceramics carry the painting into the room; deeper reds give an evening setting warmth.

Les Bulbes

A quiet beginning

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The modern loft

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

A sense of place

A setting shaped by the painting's story.

COLOUR IN MOTION

Rush Hour

A sense of place

A busy underwater world brings playful energy to a room. Echo its blues and greens in textiles, then let a small pink accent do the rest.

Rush Hour

A quiet beginning

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The modern loft

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

Hospitality with character

Art as part of a welcoming guest experience.

BLOOMS

Beautiful, Bountiful Blooms

A sense of place

Flowers bring generosity and warmth. Cream upholstery gives the colours space, while plum and pink accents create a richer mood.

A quiet beginning

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The modern loft

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

Hospitality with character

Art as part of a welcoming guest experience.

WONDERFUL WILDLIFE

Elephants

The modern loft

Earthy tones and a strong presence suit timber, leather and natural fibres. The same painting feels equally at home in a city loft or a lodge.

Giraffes

Collected elegance

Graceful forms and warm markings lend character to quiet interiors. Layer woven textures, warm wood and a few collected objects around them.

Zebras

Hospitality with character

Black and white offers a confident starting point. Olive upholstery, patterned cushions and warm lighting soften the graphic impact.

Zebras

A quiet beginning

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The modern loft

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

A sense of place

Owls on a Mission

The home library

Small paintings give a favourite corner its own personality. Books, kitchen tools and a comfortable chair make these curious companions feel at home.

A quiet beginning

The loft study

The working kitchen

The cosy coffee bar

CRAZY CREATURES

Who's in Charge?

The craft room

A little humour belongs in everyday spaces. The birds add a cheerful focal point beside breakfast, books or the satisfying bustle of a craft room.

Who's in Charge?

A quiet beginning

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The loft kitchen

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

The neighbourhood cafe

Art as part of a welcoming guest experience.

BLOOMS

Into the Pink

The spa

Soft pinks move easily between home and hospitality. Bring them into flowers or fabric, with cream and warm metal keeping the mood gentle.

BLOOMS

Out of the Blue

The hotel lounge

Peach blossoms against blue-green create a quiet balance. Repeat those colours sparingly in upholstery, ceramics or a vase of fresh flowers.

BLOOMS

Purple Vase

The verandah

Plum, pink and warm reds brighten a relaxed verandah. Wicker, fresh flowers and a curled-up cat give the painting a welcoming setting.

Purple Vase

The dining corner

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The loft kitchen

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

The fireside room

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

The cocktail lounge

Velvet, lamplight and richly layered colour.

Les Bulbes en Safari

The African verandah

The Ladies bring their own sense of adventure. Wicker, leafy plants and natural textures connect their story with a verandah or a welcoming lounge.

Les Bulbes en Safari

The modern loft

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

The private club

Art as part of a welcoming guest experience.

The Ladies Who Cook

The garden dining room

A room made for sharing: rustic timber, fresh food, open doors and a dog nearby. Red accents connect the painting with the pleasures of the table.

The Ladies Who Cook

The quiet dining room

Neutral tones with considered colour accents.

The open kitchen

Open space, beams and contemporary details.

Collected elegance

Antiques, pattern and modern comfort.

The bistro

Art as part of a welcoming guest experience.

Bulbes at the Beach

The beach house

Navy stripes and turquoise carry a holiday spirit indoors. White rafters, copper lanterns and relaxed woven seating make the coastal story feel lived in.

Bulbes at the Beach
